

REDWAN AHMED RAFI

Final-Year CSE Student

kmrafi2003@gmail.com | +880 1810-582621 | Ashulia, Savar, Dhaka, Bangladesh

PROFILE SUMMARY

Final-year Computer Science & Engineering student combining hands-on programming ability (C, Python, HTML/CSS) with proven experience coordinating teams, events, and research projects through multiple IEEE leadership roles. First-authored and presented two international research papers, demonstrating strong analytical, writing, and public-presentation skills. Skilled at planning logistics, managing stakeholders, and delivering results under deadline pressure. Seeking to bring a versatile blend of technical literacy, project coordination, and people-management skills to a Management Trainee, Project Coordinator, or entry-level Software Development role.
